Chapter 2: Probationary Period & Onboarding

New full-time hires undertake a 90-day introductory probationary period.

During this window, managers provide structured 30-day and 60-day performance check-ins.

A formal milestone review is conducted at day 90 to confirm ongoing regular employment status.

Chapter 11: Attendance Tracking and Calculation

11.1 Attendance Calculation Methodology

Attendance is calculated based on automated electronic badge swipes at office entry turnstiles and active single sign-on (SSO) login sessions on corporate laptops. Full-time personnel are expected to complete 40 accountable working hours per week.

11.2 Grace Periods and Late Arrival

A standard 15-minute grace period is provided for morning check-ins. If an employee arrives more than 30 minutes after standard shift start without prior supervisor notice, it is logged as an unscheduled late arrival. Three unscheduled late arrivals in a calendar month trigger an informal review.
